Oh, by the way

Mrs. Nancy Bersch and Miss Martha Tibbs are two of the most useful people on our campus. Mrs. Bersch is secretary to President Raymond Dooley and Miss Tibbs is secretary to C. A. Balof, business manager.

"Nancy" and "Martha" as they are known to their student friends are in charge of the office duties.

Due to the illness of Dean Pooley, Mrs. David Stevenson became the school's librarian second semester.

Acting as student librarians under Mrs. Stevenson were Eugene Yates, Doris Jackson, Mary Hoffman, and Harold Hayes.

Do you remember a cold morning when you went running into A.B. or U.H. and curled beside one of the big radiators, thanking God that you were finally able to find a warm place? Well, you can thank the Almighty, but please don't forget to thank our janitors, too. They are the ones who keep the furnaces going during the winter and mow the campus in the spring and summer. They do a lot of little things for all of us and I am sure all of us appreciate them. So let's get together and shout a big thanks to all of them.

Everyday, everybody, at the same time starts running in the same direction. To some people coming from New York, this reminds them of the 6 p.m. subway rush. That's not the case here....it's chow time at the dining hall!!! This is the place where we get together three times a day for food and gossip, this is the place where the Camel salesman offers cigarettes to the "Lucky" fans.

Our chapel service, which is held every Friday morning, is led by students. Each week it is up to a different student to see that there is a speaker, soloist, and plan the entire program. They are assisted by the Rev. J. T. Burns.

Students who have led chapel throughout the year: Carroll Besgrove, Connie Broshow, Boyd Brown, Donna Harmsen, Doris Jackson, Mary Jo Wylder, and Eleanor Berner.

ART

A series of subjects dealing with college life was one of the outstanding projects of this year's art class. Much work was done in water technique, color harmony, and emotional use of color.

The Art Association of Lincoln is closely connected with L.C. and has had on display throughout the year various art exhibits. The exhibit of the "classics" of L.C. students was shown during the month of May.

DRAMA

"The Lincoln College Community Players" official title adopted by the theatre group became quite familiar in the 1949-50 season.

Three main productions...."Mr. Pim Passes By"...."Laura"....and "The Miser"....were scheduled and produced with great success. Augmenting the group's work were one act plays, presented here and in neighboring communities.

A theatre workshop set up in the back of the biology science building was the scene of activity throughout the year. The shop is new and presented itself as one of the greatest assets to the organization.

Radio entered the scene of this year's drama the last part of the second semester. A special class in radio, the music department, and students on campus produced a series of radio programs, which were heard each Saturday.

Activities plus with....crews building all sets....make-up and prop crews....doors falling in or off....costume problems....extensive advertising campaigns....lighting....cast parties at Mr. Lee's....and just plain fun.

MUSIC

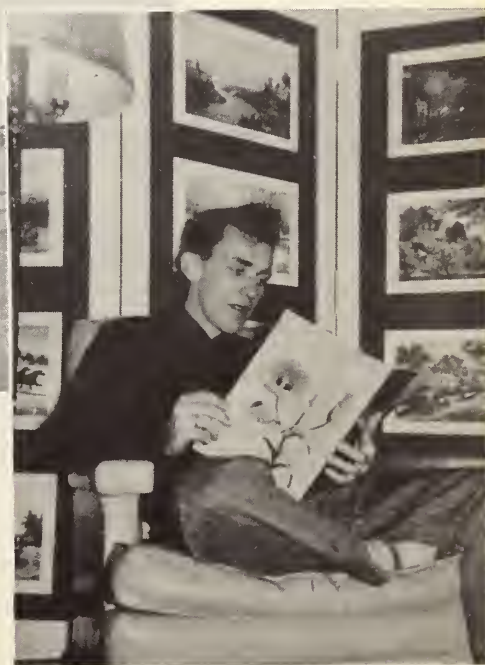

February 10, 1950 the choral society of Lincoln College made its first appearance as the second event in the entertainment series of the school. The program was in conjunction with "The Opera Jesters" of Wesleyan University.

A vesper program March 5, 1950, at the Methodist Church was the second performance of the group.

The 49-50 choir has been more active than those of previous years. They organized with Virginia Fort as president, Marcia Moore, secretary, and Jim Congabel, treasurer. A very successful caroling party with lunch at the Hanger residence afterward proved to be most interesting.

A Community Choir was formed at the College immediately after Christmas. It has proved itself to be one of the finest organizations in Lincoln and a credit to the college. This group did much work in the college radio activities also.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student council election-time means fun for all on the campus. It is the time when cars, loaded with students, roll slowly through the streets. Every afternoon during the campaign students ring bells and make all kinds of noise trying to persuade the rest of the students to vote for their candidates.

OUR VICTORIOUS LYNX SQUAD

"The best team in the conference" were the words on the lips of many basketball fans when they first saw the purple and white clad Lynx take the floor. Right they were, as shown by the eight won and two lost record of the Lynx. The most feared team in the conference lived up to its rating and came out tied for first place in Illinois-Missouri Junior College Conference with Centralia Junior College. As the coach, Vic Baumgartner, put it, "They were a fine bunch of boys, who seemed to rise and meet every occasion, no matter how tough or hard it was."

BARRACKS

This is strictly for boys....all the men students of Lincoln College, whether they live in the famous barracks or not....there isn't a man on the campus who hasn't for one reason or another been in the "Men's Dormitory". Just everybody has seen that our barracks are simple, clean, and homey....one has fun there and one can always find somebody who is willing to listen to a few troubles or go out for a little excitement.

This is the fifth year the barracks have been in operation on the campus. One of the buildings has only single rooms, the other three are divided into apartments. Each apartment is composed of two rooms, a living-room-kitchen and a bathroom and sleeping rooms.

We hear our echoes come back from the campus trees....leaves green....leaves falling....whisper memories of September....
December....March....we hear echoes from the walls....voices singing....happy....busy....echoing Bob....Carol....Bill....
Mary....Joe ...Lee....we hear echoes from the tower....eighty-
